

In a decent respect to everyone's opinion, this is my mine. Psalms 82:6 says, I have said, you are gods, and all of you are, children of the most High. In my opinion, the blood of Yeshua, now known as Jesus, not only covered the sins of the entire population of the planet, everyone past, present, and future, but it also ratified the Instructions of God making the Law legally binding. In my opinion, God loaned out His word to those known as the tares to bring about its fulfillment of scripture through deception. Causing everyone over time to forget His name Yahweh without being aware of it. And consequently, led everyone to be in opposition to God. The language that was developed through using the Word of God deceitfully, is the language of the people that Scripture says God would send to rule over scattered Israel, that Israel wouldn't understand. It is my opinion the internet marked the beginning of the finale leg of a race that is said that there could be only one winner. Many people had begun studying the newly discovered material that wasn't available to the average person until the internet. What was being shown to Christianity was the most spiritually devastating thing that those that hadn't witnessed it for themselves can only begin to imagine. It is my opinion that all who did witness it, turned on God just as Judas Iscariot did, but should have told everyone. But because of their own bewilderment, and because of pride they couldn't do the honorable thing. It is widely known Jesus was mortal, not the virgin born son of Mary like I had been taught. There would've been no other made-up story that could have made it more difficult for the Messiah to arise than to start the rumor that the first Messiah was a virgin born child. Undeniably, because of the slowly developed virgin child tale, Jesus is a government-sanctioned figment of the imagination and one of the strongholds of their enslaved people. The following quote, one Catholic confession, should make everyone recognize the truth, it's from a man named T. Enright at lecture at Hartford Kansas February 18, 1884. The reader says: The Bible says remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy, the Catholic Church says, no by my divine power, I abolish the Sabbath day and command you to keep holy the first day of the week, and low the entire civilized world bows down in reverent obedience to the command of the holy Catholic Church" (end quote) In anyone's opinion does this seem to be telling everyone something? Each citizen of every nation is members-one-with-another. For everyone's mind and purpose to begin to be changed for good, the 'salutary' truth that people around you already know, needs only to be told. All those tested by God lacked faith and couldn't separate from man's teachings and become the Messiah and then caused everyone else to miss the opportunity to. That was always the purpose of the Law, always. God said whosoever will, so it came down to who did. In my opinion, that is me, and I have proof. 28485 "One reality that becomes vivid at death is that you could have! = 589 In my opinion!
