I could not have in any conceivable way been seeking God more diligently, than I was when all of what happened to me spiritually began taking place that Saturday. As I explain along the way, I want all to understand what all this truly means. I may back step in a some of my account, please bear with me. It started, I would say two years before the burning bush. After a divorce with my first wife, I had been introduced to what became my second. After a very short engagement we got married, which didn't last. After just meeting this lady, but before we got married, I had heard talk that I had been seeing her before I divorced my first wife. And that was not true, neither would it have been something new if I had been, given I had not been faithful with my first wife anyway. When Paul the apostle said he was Chief of sinners, Well, I took that mantle when I was born, June 27, 1964. And, it just happened not to be true.

One day while driving to work, at a Mobile Home dealership in London Kentucky, I felt, I needed to stop at the car dealership where my friend and pastor worked, so to at least get word to him that the rumor was not true. To tell you I was on cloud nine over this woman would be an understatement, I had been acting as if I were an over-the-top in love teenager everywhere I went, flat out foolish. After the talk with my pastor, of which I didn't allow much input from him because of my rambling, because of the certainty that God had sent this lady my way. All he said pretty much was, Mike all I can say is "God hates divorce." I get in my car with all my cares behind me it seemed, and on my cloud 9. I drove maybe 100 feet down the street, and it's as if I drove through a thin veil, or sheet. In an instant, I went from cloud nine, to the pits of hell. Every ounce of happiness that I had, immediately was gone.

And to not get into all the details, from that point, my life was never going to be the same. Until that fateful Saturday things turned around. Jordan, in his "Times interview," tries to describe his pain from his akathisia. I will describe mine this way ; I felt that I was walking in the pits of hell, had been there forever, and was never getting out. As I made it to Roy's mobile home dealership, I had never felt such oppression and despair in all my life. The first thing I do, is call Vicky my "God send," and without my saying a word , she picks up and says; "Michael, I feel so strange," she being some 20 miles away felt an effect of what I was experiencing. To me, it was as if the 'Pillars of Heaven and earth had been Shaken within myself, and being cast into the pits of hell itself. After all this, I still go through with the marriage.

It seems I never wanted to hide the wickedness I had thought of doing, or had done, I would actually confess after I had done something wrong. For instance I had seen a lady while being married to my first wife and confessed to her and my children, and actually told them how I thought there was something not right with me. I even came to the point of calling the poison hotline because of the trains of confusion running through my head. I told the gentleman on the line that I had the habit of sometimes keeping a lead-sinker in my mouth while on an occasional family fishing trip, biting down on it and so forth. I ask; is that something that would cause brain damage? He laughs a bit, and says it doesn't work that way. That was somewhat of a relief to hear. My problem had always been not knowing if God was real, or not real. I had also once told God, that if He wasn't real, I didn't want to exist.

Another thing I will share is, not long after the candle experience, I had went back to see if my first wife and I could make things work. Now that I knew God was real, I knew I had something to live for. It didn't work out, but while I was there, God, after that Saturday had been opening up Scripture in ways I could never have imagined. One night I was on the front porch, in the middle of the night praying, again toward the East, it also was something I was led to do. While down on My knees praying, it was as if God Himself, had laid His hands on Me, and thrust Me on My side, and there I lay completely overwhelmed and scared, in a fetal position. All I was able to do is look up, and say, I give up God!

During those days I was at my ex wife's, in amongst those times of God opening up Scripture, there was one particular time when I had seen what was only the tip of the iceberg of all the lies laying out before Me. This is when I had discovered Biblehub.com, this where I discovered all the study material kept back from everyone, and only released after the internet was introduced. I don't remember exactly what that was, but it actually made me take two steps backwards, and I said; "I don't know if I want to know this!" It was absolutely terrifying, and then the candle, the night on the porch, and all else came to My mind, and it's as if I had to pull Myself back into where God had brought Me. Which I did, I thought; "No, I ask for this, and that is what I must receive! It was all part of what God had told Me in Jeremiah chapter 33 verse 3. Call to Me, and I will answer You, and show you incomprehensible things you did not know.

I can honestly say, My adversity had started long before this, but this is when what God had told Me in Isaiah chapter 30 verse 20, had truly come to bear. Though I give You the bread of adversity, and the water of affliction, your teacher's won't be moved into a corner anymore, for your eyes will see your teachers.

Then comes the point I move into My car, traveling from one end of the country to the other. As I did, God had started revealing Himself, and all of the teacher's that I had no idea where ever there. I know that there is no way that the average persons could believe what I say, there would be no reason why they could, and I don't blame you. As Lorne Lanning indicates in the interview, the coterie had this down to a science. Even to where those thinking they are serving God, are actually helping the coterie thrive. Causing confusion, and ignorance is what the demon possessed coterie people are good at, and the ignorance of God's people is their strength.

I know this with all certainty, all the inhabitants of the earth, will come to believe. And know this, I, just as God has never been against you, am still not against but for you. What I was chosen for, and destined to suffer, can in no way be hindered or prevented from continuing to unfold. I will, just as Yeshua did, teach all through the Scriptures, the things concerning Myself. It wasn't that I knew I was the Messiah that day of the candle, nor that night on the porch, this was an eleven year gradual learning, of how God chose Me for His dwelling place.

As Ezekiel chapter 36 verse 26 and 27 told Me, as He took out My heart of stone and replaced it with a heart of flesh, and as He told Me; I will put My Spirit in you and cause you to walk in My statutes, and My judgements you will keep and do them". When all realize that it's the Catholic Church's teachings, and decrees that all are adhering to, whether in the church or out, is when all will also start seeing the world as it truly is. It was those decrees, or dogma that had been taken out of the way and nailed to the cross, not Gods instructions. The Catholic Church, or rather it shall be seen as Artemis had only slowly reimplemented their dogma, and added enormous amounts extras to mislead God's people.

All of the teacher's are teaching, and all of the students are unaware they are even being taught. You will see that it was the coterie's divine mission and business, to lead the people into error, which they fully accomplished. But, the good news is that which is told of in Acts chapter 19 verse 27, as it tells of the discussion between these people; But not only is this business of ours endangered, of coming into disrepute, but also the great goddess Artemis's temple to be considered as nothing, with her majesty destroyed, who all Asia and the world worships".

The coterie is the teachers, Neil deGrasse Tyson, Jordan Peterson, News media, those in Government, music, Hollywood, that's just for starters. This is the call of My people to come out of her, Artemis, and begin to see the world as it is. There is nothing to stop what God My Father had preordained, the freedom all scattered Israel lacks is at hand. All are not going to be the soulless automatons that the coterie had hoped. They are going to stop what there doing, and change their mind and purpose just like Israel.

One quick study of the Hebrew word 3354, which is pronounced yek-ooth-ee-ale, this the name of a man of Judah. (See Biblehub.com) to confirm. In the Brown Driver Briggs you see the meaning of this name is Preservation of God, just below that is the Strong's Exhaustive Concordance, where you that is from two words, where the meaning is Obedience of God. This will also give a clear example of the language, and how it speaks of My being the Messiah, who catches them in their craftiness.

If you go to Biblehub.com you will notice that in the Brown Driver Briggs section (proper name, masculine) note that these words are not black, but a shade of brown. This indicates that they “are not” to be highlighted, copied and pasted on to the word value calculator. You start at the next word (Imperfect) and copy the remaining “first” paragraph, only. I explain that the word calculator adds the value as A=1 B=2 C=3 etc. the Hebrew letters seen within equal zero, and do not effect the calculating.

The paragraph equals 1405, this in Greek is a word pronounced, dras-som-ah-ee, meaning To Grasp, I take hold, used only in first Corinthians chapter three verse nineteen. And reads; for the wisdom of this world, is foolishness to God, for it has been written: He is the [One] catching the wise in their craftiness. I give other examples of the coterie speaking directly at Me, that will become plain to all people everywhere. This one example is sufficient to convince most everyone in the coterie, especially those with the most knowledge on the language, the more knowledge one has the more convincing. Lorne Lanning is one example of a member that can't miss this.

The helper's of the evil are scattered throughout society, and though it took thousands of years of dedication on the coterie's part to have led everyone to where they are today in their thinking, it has also been easy for them, all they needed was time and patience.

And before I go further, I will say, that I know very well, that nature cannot choose its origin, as this is said in the Hamlet Play, meaning, the coterie is responsible and will receive just judgement for the the decisions they have made, but Yeshua's blood covered all mankind's sin, His and then My sufferings is what was required to be fulfilled to do the rest.

One example of sowing confusion is, Ruth Banks, a retired Jackson County Kentucky teacher, who thirty years ago told my nephew My oldest brother's son and his classmates in their class, who were 7 to 8 years old of the corruptions in the Bible. It's not hard to imagine the desired effect on those young ears, and how they will see God, Church, and the world, as they grow up, differently than children who had not heard the truths she was speaking. Yet, she didn't say anything about this to the church she was attending. I have visited Ruth and her husband twice, and the first was mostly a conversation with her husband that day. The second time I go she invites me in as if she knew me well, and was expecting me. This is because she was expecting someone from the medical industry, and I had a folder in my hand, and in a few minutes this was cleared up, I talk and they both listened. The folder was part of what I had written having to do with My book being published. The last bit of our conversation was about the Catholic Church's counsel of Nicaea, in 325 AD, and their giving Yeshua, the natural born Son of Joseph and Mary His divinity. Asked was she aware of this corruption, she didn't speak it, but she did nod her head in agreement. I asked if she would be willing to talk about this with some pastors if we dropped by, she said they didn't really want any company that day, but she didn't say she wouldn't. That indicates that any of the pastors that knows Me that read this, or do not know Me can go to her and learn something.

Carmen Abner is the next, she is employed at the Jackson County Sun Newspaper. Last summer, 2021, I went into the paper, asking questions and learning. I asked if she had a little time, I went in to her office sat down and we started chatting. I brought up the counsel of Nicaea, and asked if she was aware of Yeshua's divinity being made up by men and given to him. Her reply was “Absolutely, and you know there aren't too many people who know that around here”.

Next, I met Scott Duncan at Opal's, a local restaurant as I was eating lunch one particular day. Something about the way he was talking drew my attention, so I go to introduce myself. We talked a bit about church, where he was from, etc. and he mentioned how easy it is, this as he was referring to the service to God. He then says “I learned a lot from some nice gentlemen, some Jesuit's. He also says “I think we should just forget the Old Testament and stick with the New”. After saying this, it's as if it dawns on him that he may have just said a bit too much, as he turns abruptly and starts talking to someone else, you had to be there. This statement was nevertheless intriguing to Me. I leave, and in a day or so come back to Opals, as I was hoping to get a little more of his thoughts on the Old Covenant.

Scott and another patron was sitting there, and I say hello and they asked me to join them. I and Scott didn't say much, the other man was telling Scott how that he thought that Scott was such a great friend. I asked if I could speak to him outside as I was writing a book and wanted to asked him some questions. He had a reluctance from the the beginning that day, a different demeanor, and his friendliness than upon our first meeting. After a bit of waiting he finally comes out, and upon my asking him of his thoughts on forgetting the Old Covenant, he gets flustered, denies it, said I was judging him, and stormed back into the restaurant. My thoughts are, what equivocating backstabbing people there are in this world.

Lastly, everyone will see how the entire educational system, is centered around causing confusion, through the use of My Word to do it. Read more of the articles on My site, want now what God has always destined you for, and the greatness that all of My Word entails.
